

D James Anderson's Story

James lives at home with his parents, George and Cheryl Anderson, in Warren, Ohio. He has two sisters, Amber and Ashley, who he loves very much. James also has a Golden Retriever named Brandy.

James works for Fairhaven Industries at Champion Workshop, where his primary responsibility is putting together clamps. He is known for enjoying his work and for being a hard worker.

James enjoys watching and participating in sports. He competes in Special Olympics Bowling, an accomplishment that he is very proud of. He also likes to go to football games at Youngstown State University.

In his free time, James likes crossword puzzles, going to the mall, watching TV and movies and playing video games and on his iPad. In the summer, James enjoys swimming and going to the park.

We are proud to serve individuals like James!

What's Your Story?

What's your story originated as a theme for Developmental Disabilities Awareness Month 2016. It has become a way for individuals with developmental disabilities share their stories and encourages everyone that when people with disabilities are welcomed into the community, everyone wins and the community is stronger. We encourage everyone to get acquainted with someone who has a developmental disability, because everyone has unique and amazing story.
